Supplementary Table 1. EPAs of emergency medicine resident training in Korea

Category	Description
EPA 1	Triage emergency patients according to severity.
EPA 2	Perform a history taking, physical examination, and differential diagnosis on an emergency patient, and develop an examination and treatment plan.
EPA 3	Perform resuscitation and critical care on critically ill patients.
EPA 4	Perform diagnostic and therapeutic procedures for emergency patients.
EPA 5	Communicate well with emergency patients, their caregivers, and collaborate with healthcare providers about the process and outcomes of care.
EPA 6	Share information and collaborate with other healthcare providers for continuity of care.
EPA 7	Provide clinical education related to emergency patient care.
EPA 8	Provide emergency patient care based on current scientific evidence.
EPA 9	Manage legal and ethical situations frequently encountered in the emergency care.
EPA 10	Perform activities to improve patient safety and quality of emergency care.

EPA, entrustable professional activity.